Product Feature And Application

As a modern and advanced packaging material, Air Column Bag Roll is environmentally friendly and pollution-free and can protect products during transportation. It needs to be equipped with one air column machine when used. The design of the tear line makes the user more convenient and efficient. The material is made of PE nylon composite film, which has strong pressure resistance, and strong air tightness, and can be recycled. Moreover, single-column damage will not affect the protective performance of the entire bag, so it is much safer.

It's widely used in various industries, such as red wine, fragile products, ceramic crafts, electronic products, food, daily chemical products, etc.
